Collaborative Response to Fight Against Rabies

28th September, '14, Bylakuppe.

Social action movement with the collaboration of Vets Beyond border and Tibetan volunteers for animals organise 'anti rabies vaccination camp 2014' in Bylakuppe, aiming to create awareness about rabies, how it can be prevented in order to create a healthy coexistence of men and animals in love and harmony.

The co-organisers called the day a successful as more than 200 dogs were vaccinated on the day and the pet owners were distributed phamlets about Rabies in Tibetan and English. Mr. Rinchen Lhaze (Para Vets), the President of Tibetan volunteers for Animals has expressed his accomplishment stating that the response and responsibility taken by Tibetan and Indian in Bylakuppe areas towards the fight against rabies has been encouraging and overwhelming. The co-organiser Ms. Sonam Paldon, Branch Manager and Para Vets of Vets Beyond Border, Bylakuppe has added that they have vaccinated more than 200 dogs in a day which is beyond their target for the day. Executive Director of Social Action Movement, Mr. Namgyal Choephel has said that the organisers were motivated by response from public. He added that with such support from public, they can easily make their locality free from rabies. He believes that every life is very precious not just humans but also animals.
